

Rahul in LS: Country run by 4 people – Hum do, hamare do

LIZ MATHEW
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 11

CONGRESS MP Rahul Gandhi led the Opposition charge against the government in Lok Sabha on Thursday, alleging that Prime Minister Narendra Modi is running the country on the basis of "Hum do, hamare do" policy. He said the government's moves such as demonetisation, GST, lockdown and farm laws were meant to benefit only rich corporates.

Participating in the Budget discussion, Gandhi alleged that the contentious farm laws are intended to "finish farmers, small, medium businessmen and the mandis", and that the country is now being run by four people.

"You all must remember the saying we used for family planning — 'Hum do, hamare do'. This government has given that slogan a new meaning. The country is run by four people. 'Hum do, aur hamare do', Gandhi said without naming any one. "Everyone knows who are they."

The Congress leader's sharp attack came at a time when the government is trying to convince agitating farmers about the benefits of the three farm laws. His remarks drew loud protests from

Rahul Gandhi led Opposition MPs to observe a two-minute silence to pay tribute to farmers who died during the agitation. The move did not go down well with the Lok Sabha Speaker who said it was his responsibility to run the House. PTI the treasury benches, with even senior ministers standing up to ask Gandhi to limit his speech to the Budget.

Amid disruptions, Gandhi said the three laws against which farmers have been protesting at Delhi borders intend to finish mandis, the Essential Commodities Act, and hand over the entire food grains in the country to corporates.

"The Prime Minister yesterday said the Opposition did not talk about content and intent of the Bills. Let me please him today... let me talk about the intent of the Bills," he said.

"The content of the first law is that one can have unlimited purchase of food grains, fruits and vegetables anywhere in the country. If the purchase is unlimited anywhere in the country, then who would go to Mandis? The content of the first law is to finish the mandis. The content of the second law is that big businessmen can store as much food grains, fruits & vegetables as they want. They can hoard as much as they want. Content of the second law is to end the Essential Commodities Act. It is, to start unlimited hoarding in India," Gandhi said even as the BJP MPs, including ministers Pralhad Joshi, Gajendra Shekhawat and Arjun Meghwal, stood up in protest.

"The content of the third law is that when a farmer goes before the biggest businessman of India to demand the right price for his crops, he will not be allowed to go to the court," Gandhi continued.

With the Congress, DMK, TMC and NCP MPs coming in defence of Gandhi asking the BJP MPs to sit down and listen, the House plunged into pandemonium. The treasury benches urged Speaker Om Birla to direct Gandhi to limit his speech to the budgetary proposals. "Farmers' issue is part of Budget," Gandhi said. The treasury benches cited parliamentary rules to stop Gandhi, but Congress leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury and TMC's Saugata Roy countered it, citing rules that the member is free to speak on any issue.

"The PM said it's an option for farmers. But what's the option for farmers now — hunger, unemployment, and suicide," Gandhi said.

Govt brazenly compromising national security & territorial integrity: Cong on disengagement

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 11

HOURS AFTER Defence Minister Rajnath Singh informed Parliament about the agreement arrived between India and China on disengagement at Pangong Tso in Ladakh, the main opposition Congress on Thursday accused the government of "brazenly compromising" national security and territorial integrity of India.

As part of the disengagement process that began on February 10, China will move its forces back to Finger 8, while Indian troops will move back to its permanent Dhan Singh Thapa Post near Finger 3 on the north bank of Pangong Tso in eastern Ladakh. The Congress said this amounted to ceding of Indian territory to China.

"In Pangong Tso Lake Area, India was occupying Finger 4 and was patrolling up to Finger 8 on the north bank. India's stance has been clear and unequivocal — LAC is up to Finger 8. As per Defence Minister's statement, Indian troops will withdraw now to Finger 3. Does it not tantamount to redrawing the LAC to India's disadvantage and creating a buffer zone between Finger 3 and Finger 8... that is on our side of the LAC? Is this not a blatant compromise on India's territorial integrity?" Congress chief spokesperson Randeep Surjewala said.

The Prime Minister and Defence Minister, he said, "must be held accountable and answer to the nation for this brazen and unpardonable compromise on India's territorial integrity and national security."

Pointing out Indian forces had occupied the vantage points on Kailash Ranges on the Southern Bank of Pangong Tso Lake Area, he said "The Defence Minister's statement today would also mean that our armed forces will be withdrawing from these vantage points in Kailash Ranges on the Southern Bank."

"Will the Prime Minister and Defence Minister explain why the Government is agreeing to withdraw Indian forces from the dominant positions in Kailash Ranges where the Chinese are at a disadvantage, without any quid pro quo by China? Does it not compromise national security?" he asked.

Death at tractor rally: Delhi HC seeks status report from police

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 11

THE DELHI High Court Thursday asked the Delhi Police to file a status report regarding the case of a 25-year-old who died during the tractor rally called by farmer protesters on January 26, while issuing a notice to the authorities in Uttar Pradesh where his post-mortem was conducted.

Listing the case for next hearing on February 26, Justice Yogesh Khanna ordered the police to provide an advance copy of the status report to the counsel representing Hardeep Singh, 69, the grandfather of the youth who died, Navreet Singh. Hardeep had approached the court seeking a time-bound and court-monitored probe by a Special Investigation Team into the death.

The police told the court that an FIR on the matter had been registered at IP Estate Police Station. As per the police, Navreet died after a tractor overturned on ramming barricades put up by them to contain the protesters. However, the family has claimed substantiation or verification".

Grover submitted that there are several CCTV cameras near the site of the incident and alleged that the Delhi Police had concealed footage from a camera of the Andhra Education Society in the area. She also accused the police of releasing a video recording selectively as well as a "finding and conclusion" to the media on January 26 evening, before any post-mortem or inquest proceedings had taken place, claiming Navreet's death to be a road accident.

"We have eyewitness accounts, we have medical opinion which is saying that injuries recorded in the post-mortem report are consistent with a firearm bullet injury and actually cannot happen if you hit a barricade and fall over," argued Grover, while relying on various media reports.

Arguing that with every passing day the actions of the Delhi Police were becoming "even more suspect", Grover pointed out that the police had registered FIRs against Member of Parliament Shashi Tharoor and many senior journalists for raising questions regarding Navreet's death. On Tuesday, the Supreme Court had stayed the arrest of Congress leader Tharoor and six others facing criminal cases, including under the charge of sedition, over their tweets regarding Navreet's death.

Grover said the FIRs were aimed at silencing an inquiry into the matter. "FIRs are lodged against senior journalists who have simply asked questions or reported the story on the basis of eyewitness accounts," she submitted, adding the Delhi Police at every step has conducted itself in a manner which cannot inspire "a shred of confidence".

Delhi's Standing Counsel (Criminal) Rahul Mehra said the footage of the CCTV installed at the Andhra Education Society, among others, had been seized by the police for examination and it would have no difficulty sharing the information, including the documents and electronic evidence in its possession, regarding the matter. He sought time to seek instructions regarding the issues raised before the court and file a status report.

He submitted that an FIR, "generic in nature", was lodged in the death.

Row after Maharashtra Governor denied permission to use govt plane

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 11

A ROW has erupted over the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) government's denial of permission to Maharashtra Governor Bhagat Singh Koshiyari to use the state government aircraft to travel to Mussoorie for a function on Thursday. Koshiyari later took a commercial flight to travel to Mussoorie.

Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray's office has clarified that the government has committed no mistake in the episode and further stated the Raj Bhavan secretariat should have verified whether the permission was granted before proceeding to board the flight.

According to Raj Bhavan, Koshiyari is scheduled to preside over the Valedictory Function of the 122nd Induction Training Programme of IAS officers at Mussoorie in Uttarakhand on Friday. The Governor's secretariat had written to government authorities on February 2, seeking permission to use the government aircraft, and had also informed the Chief Minister's Office (CMO).

A statement from the Chief Minister's Office (CMO) said that as per the rules permission is sought before boarding a government aircraft and the aircraft is made available only after approval.

The opposition BJP called the denial of permission the action of an "egoistic government". "The government's plane is not anyone's personal property. Making the Hon Governor get off the plane is shocking and goes against basic decorum. After all, the Governor is a constitutional post and he heads the state government. The chief minister and cabinet ministers are administered the oath of office by the Governor. Where does so much ego in the MVA government come from? Never ever seen such an egoistic government in Maharashtra," said Leader of Opposition Devendra Fadnis.

However, Shiv Sena leader and MP Sanjay Raut refuted the allegations of the opposition, that the Sena-led state government acted with vendetta against Koshiyari. "The Maharashtra government or the chief minister has not and will not do anything to dis-spect the governor. There are rules and regulations set by the Home Ministry if the Governor wants to use the state machinery for his personal or private visits. If the government had broken these rules, then the government would have been blamed. The Maharashtra government has merely followed these rules. How has following rules become a question of ego," asked Raut.

There has been an uneasy relationship between Koshiyari and the Thackeray led-government for a year.

In its petition, the family has cited media reports quoting eyewitness accounts as well as opinion of medical experts, claiming sufficient reason not to accept the "self-serving conclusion of the Delhi Police". They had the right to know the truth and the right to justice, for closure, the family argued before the court Thursday.

Advocate Vrinda Grover, representing Hardeep, said Navreet had gone from his village in Bilaspur, Rampur, UP, to participate in the tractor rally, and that eyewitnesses had said he was shot by the police — "following which" and "because of which" his tractor hit the barricade and overturned. Grover cited media reports to support her arguments and also alleged that the police abandoned the scene and conducted no proceedings. Grover called the Delhi Police's stand on Navreet's death as "hastily, prejudged assertion without any
